Keys to parenting your anxious child / Manassis, Katharina. -- Hauppauge, NY: Barron's Educational Series, 2015.

How can parents recognize anxieties that affect their child's happiness and well-being, and how can they help their child overcome them? An experienced child psychiatrist answers this important two-part question by describing various anxiety-caused behavior patterns and advising parents on ways to help their child within the context of both family and school environments. New in this edition are discussions of topics that include early adolescents coping with growth anxiety, mid-adolescents and peer pressure, and late adolescents facing social anxieties in an environment that also includes recreational drugs.

FAM BF 723 .A5 M36 2015

The mindful child: how to help your kid manage stress and become happier, kinder, and more compassionate / Greenland, Susan Kaiser. -- New York: Free Press, 2010.

Mindful awareness works by enabling you to pay closer attention to what is happening within you-- your thoughts, feelings and emotions-- so you can better understand what is happening to you. The author has developed techniques to teach mindful awareness to children, building their emotional and social skills and positively affecting their academic performance.
