

CHEO's House and goals for 2022-23

Vision: Our desired future state

The best life for every child and youth

Mission: The 'how' of achieving our vision

We provide exceptional care and advance how children, youth and families obtain it through partnership, research and education.

Values: The ideals that bind us together

- We respect each other
- We support people on their journey
- We innovate and challenge the status quo
- We create new knowledge, learn and teach

Strategic Directions: 2022 to 2023

Outcomes that Matter: Safety First

Work with children, youth and families to achieve the results they care about most.

Progress from Evidence: Improvements Made

Innovate to make things better through research, continuous improvement and activating new knowledge.

Partners in Health

Ensure the voice of children, youth and families guides the care we provide and the future of our organization.

Connecting Care

Advance the way pediatric care is delivered so that children, youth and families can access services when, where and how they need them.

Unlock our Potential: Wise Resourcing

Make the best use of the resources we have and be smart about future investments.

Unlock our Potential: Inspiring Workplace

Make the best use of the resources we have and be smart about future investments.

High level goals:

- Zero harm and prevention of COVID transmissions
- Reduce time to inpatient bed and increase timeliness and capacity for care.
